Snowflake School London

Lead Teacher

Applied Behaviour Analysis/Verbal Behaviour

MPS + SEN 1 (Inner London)

Snowflake School is a small, friendly special school offering specialist education for children with Autism. We address each pupil's special educational needs through the scientific application of Applied Behaviour Analysis (ABA) using Verbal Behaviour (VB) methodology. Snowflake School achieved 'Outstanding' status from Ofsted in 2013 and again in 2016 and we are now seeking a Teacher who will be able to help us sustain this rating and further improve our provision and outcomes for children..

We are seeking a creative and enthusiastic teacher to join our team and provide motivating and exciting lessons. This is an opportunity for an ambitious teacher who wishes to gain experience of teaching a broad age range (currently 5-14) across all National Curriculum subject areas. We will expect you to be innovative and be able to take a lead in shaping our personalised curriculum which integrates one to one and small group learning. You must be prepared to follow the principles of Applied Behaviour Analysis and Verbal behaviour throughout your work. You will have opportunities to lead projects and be an integral member of the Leadership Team.

Snowflake School has plans to extend the number of places for children by moving to a new site in the near future and this role will enable you to play an important part in our exciting expansion plans.

You will need:

- Qualified Teacher Status
- Successful teaching experience.
- Experience of working with children with Autism
- to be able to work closely with a team of experienced ABA/VB tutors and Supervisors.
- To be able to work with other professionals in a multidisciplinary setting.

We offer:

- A successful and positive approach to teaching children with autism, with a strong emphasis on behavioural methods.
- Full ABA/VB training
- Opportunities to lead training
- A warm, positive and supportive environment
- Central London location
- Excellent opportunities for professional development.

Closing Date: 23rd May 2017 Interviews: 7th and 8th June 2017
