Revision	13

1. Aims

The aims of relationships and sex education (RSE) at our school are to:

- Provide a framework in which sensitive discussions can take place
- Prepare pupils for puberty, and give them an understanding of sexual development and the importance of health and hygiene
- Help pupils develop feelings of self-respect, confidence and empathy
- Create a positive culture around issues of sexuality and relationships
- Teach pupils the correct vocabulary to describe themselves and their bodies

2. Statutory Requirements

At Snowflake School, we teach RSE as set out in this policy. As an independent school, we must provide relationships education to all pupils under section 34 of the Children and Social Work Act 2017. For secondary pupils we must provide RSE to all pupils under section 34 of the Children and Social Work Act 2017.

We do not have to follow the National Curriculum, but we offer all pupils a curriculum that includes requirements to teach science. This would include the elements of sex education contained in the science curriculum.

Local authorities must ensure that the EHC plan review at Year 9 (age 13-14), and every year thereafter, focuses on preparation for adulthood, employment; independent living, health, friendships, relationships and community participation.

3. Curriculum

Our RSE curriculum is set out as per Appendix 1, but we may need to adapt it as and when necessary.

We take into account the age, developmental stage, needs and feelings of our pupils. If pupils ask questions outside the scope of this policy, teachers will respond in an appropriate manner so that pupils are fully informed and don't seek answers online.

We will share all curriculum materials with parents and carers upon request.

For more information about our curriculum, see our curriculum map in Appendix 1 & 2.

4. Delivery of RSE

RSE is taught within the personal, social, health and economic (PSHE) education curriculum. Biological aspects of RSE are taught within the science curriculum.

Relationships education focuses on teaching the fundamental building blocks and characteristics of positive relationships including:

- Families and people who care for me

- Caring friendships
- Respectful relationships
- Online relationships
- Being safe

For more information about our RSE curriculum, see Appendices 1

The content of our RSE curriculum, as well as the timing of delivery throughout the academic year, is outlined in the below table and will be adapted as necessary for specific pupils. ReIE / RSE will be delivered through PSHE, Science, Circle time and PE lessons to all pupils (taught by teachers and trainee teacher) as well as delivered daily by 1:1 tutors during NET sessions, self-help sessions and when learning out in the community.

These areas of learning are taught within the context of family life, taking care to make sure that there is no stigmatisation of children based on their home circumstances (families can include single parent families, LGBT parents, families headed by grandparents, adoptive parents and foster parents/carers, amongst other structures), along with reflecting sensitively that some children may have a different structure of support around them (for example, looked-after children or young carers).

We will also be mindful of the law and legal requirements, taking care not to condone or encourage illegal political activity, such as violent action against people, criminal damage to property, hate crime, terrorism or the illegal use of drugs.

Inclusivity

We will teach about these topics in a manner that:

- Considers how a diverse range of pupils will relate to them
- Is sensitive to all pupils' experiences
- During lessons, makes pupils feel:
 - Safe and supported
 - Able to engage with the key messages

We will also:

Make sure that pupils learn about these topics in an environment that's appropriate for them, for example in:

- A whole-class setting
- Small groups or targeted sessions
- 1-to-1 discussions
- Digital formats

Give careful consideration to the level of differentiation needed

Use of resources

We will consider whether any resources we plan to use:

- Are aligned with the teaching requirements set out in the statutory RSE guidance
- Would support pupils in applying their knowledge in different contexts and settings
- Are age-appropriate, given the age, developmental stage and background of our pupils
- Are evidence-based and contain robust facts and statistics
- Fit into our curriculum plan
- Are from credible sources
- Are compatible with effective teaching approaches
- Are sensitive to pupils' experiences and won't provoke distress

5. Roles and responsibilities

The Board of Trustees

The Board of trustees will approve the RSE policy and hold the headteacher to account for its implementation.

The headteacher

The headteacher is responsible for ensuring that RSE is taught consistently across the school, for sharing resources and materials with parents and carers, and for managing requests to withdraw pupils.

All staff are responsible for:

- Delivering RSE in a sensitive way
- Modelling positive attitudes to RSE
- Monitoring progress
- Responding to the needs of individual pupils
- Responding appropriately to pupils whose parents/carers wish them to be withdrawn from statutory components of RSE

Staff do not have the right to opt out of teaching RSE. Staff who have concerns about teaching RSE are encouraged to discuss this with the headteacher.

Pupils

Pupils are expected to engage fully in RSE and, when discussing issues related to RSE, treat others with respect and sensitivity.

6. Parents' right to withdraw

Primary School - Parents/carers do not have the right to withdraw their child from relationships education. Secondary School - Parents/carers have the right to withdraw their child from components of sex education within RSE up to and until 3 terms before the child turns 16. After this point, if the child wishes to receive sex education rather than being withdrawn, the school will arrange this.

Requests for withdrawal should be put in writing using the form found in Appendix 3 of this policy and addressed to the headteacher.

A copy of withdrawal requests will be placed in the pupil's educational record. The headteacher will discuss the request with parents/carers and take appropriate action.

There will be an expectation that sex education will be provided at home if it is not provided in school and the school can provide materials to help with this.

7. Monitoring arrangements

The delivery of RSE is monitored by Sumen Starr, Headteacher through:

- regular observation of 1:1 and group lessons
- pupil participation and self-evaluation
- tutor / supervisor / teacher confidence in PSHE/RSE folders
- attendance / input by parents /carers at meetings
- keep up to date with health initiatives, resources and materials related to RSE.
- to liaise with external agencies regarding the school's RSE programme

Pupils' development in RSE is monitored by class teachers as part of our internal assessment systems.

This policy will be reviewed by Sumen Starr, annually. At every review, the policy will be approved by Board of Trustees and headteacher.
